WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

 BRIEF ORDER OF CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

P: In the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit. C: Amen.

P: Heavenly Father, merciful and holy, in you we live and move and have our being. Look upon us, your children, the work of your hands. Forgive us all our offenses, and cleanse us from proud thoughts and empty desires. By your grace draw us near to you, our refuge and our strength and renew us in the power of your Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

P: In the presence of God, who sees our hearts and our minds, who forgives all our sins, whose mercy endures forever, let us confess our sin.

Silence is kept for reflection and confession of our sins before God and one another.

God of glory, God of peace, we confess that we have shunned the light that reveals the truth about us. We cling to worldly things rather than sharing the gifts of this earth. We trust ourselves above all. Save your people, O God and free us to live boldly in the light of the grace and truth of Jesus, our Savior. Amen.

If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: Everything old has passed away; behold, everything has become new! The grace of God shines upon us, bringing salvation to the whole world. We are saved, our sins are washed away, not because of anything we have done, but according to God's mercy in Jesus Christ. Therefore, I announce the forgiveness of all your sins in the name of the Father, +Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

* GATHERING HYMN “As With Gladness Men of Old”

C: And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY:

O God, on this day you revealed your Son to the nations by the leading of a star. Lead us now by faith to know your presence in our lives, and bring us at last to the full vision of your glory, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. C: Amen.

The congregation may be seated.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 60: 1-6

Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you. ²For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you. ³Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. ⁴Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms. ⁵Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. ⁶A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

L: The Word of the Lord. C: Thanks be to God.

PSALM: 72: 1-4, 10-12

¹Give the king your justice, O God,
 and your righteousness to the king's son;
²that he may rule your people righteously
 and the poor with justice;
³that the mountains may bring prosperity to the people,
 and the hills, in righteousness.
⁴Let him defend the needy among the people,
 rescue the poor, and crush the oppressor.
¹⁰May the kings of Tarshish and of the isles pay tribute,
 and the kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.
¹¹May all kings bow down before him,
 and all the nations do him service.
¹²For the king delivers the poor who cry out in distress,
 the oppressed, and those who have no helper.

SECOND READING: Philippians 3: 7-15

⁷But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. ⁸Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ ⁹and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— ¹⁰that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, ¹¹that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. ¹²Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. ¹³Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, ¹⁴I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you.

L: The Word of the Lord. C: Thanks be to God.

The congregation is invited to stand.

*Then entered in those Wise Men three, Full reverently upon the knee,
And offered there, in His presence, Their gold and myrrh and frankincense.*

Refrain Noel, Noel, Noel, Born is the King of Israel.

GOSPEL: Matthew 2: 1-12

P: The holy gospel according to St. Matthew.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem,² asking, "Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage."³ When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him;⁴ and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born.⁵ They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: ⁶"And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel."⁷ Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared.⁸ Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage."⁹ When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was.¹⁰ When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy.¹¹ On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.¹² And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

P: The Gospel of the Lord. C: Praise to you, O Christ!

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He descended into hell.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Sunday School: We Continue “The Story” Finding Your Story in God’s Love Story!

The Story Bible Study gives us a way to journey from Genesis to Revelation together in 31 Bible Studies so everyone understands God’s story and how their story intersects with it. It is true that God’s Word, the Bible, is “The Greatest Story Ever Told” and it is an amazing story of God’s love for us! A Gallup survey reports the average American household has four Bibles. However, research by Pew Forum on Religion and Public Life (2008) found that only 16 percent of Americans read the Bible every day. At Grace we are hoping to reverse this trend! I believe that The Story is the right tool to increase Biblical literacy, helping readers understand God's story from Genesis to Revelation and how their own stories intersect with God's. We have finished the Old Testament, the first 21 Sessions. Starting on December 28 we will begin the New Testament with the following chapters: New Testament: 22 The Birth of the King; 23 Jesus' Ministry Begins; 24 No Ordinary Man 25 Jesus, the Son of God; 26 The Hour of Darkness; 27 The Resurrection; 28 New Beginnings 29 Paul's Mission; 30 Paul's Final Days; 31 The End of Time. The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand forever.Isaiah 40:8

“Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you.”

- Isaiah 60:1-6 -

This is a dark time of the year in Minnesota. Dark and bitterly cold. This is the time of year when those who are able flee to warmer places, where the sun shines hot, and doesn't set at 4:30 in the afternoon. And yet, when the sun does shine these days, it is blindingly bright as it reflects off the snow. At this time of year in Minnesota there is no middle ground between deep, gloomy darkness and blinding light.

As Isaiah offered his prophetic word, he was speaking to a people living in deep darkness. They were homeless, nationless, and, as far as they could tell, godless. Darkness had swallowed them up.

And then Isaiah brought this word, “Arise, shine, for your light has come.” The days of darkness would give way to the bright light of God's presence among his people. The darkness would be swallowed up by the light. The darkness would not last forever. The light of God's presence, meanwhile, is everlasting. It cannot be extinguished.

When we find ourselves in the midst of dark days, it can be difficult to see the light of God's presence. Sometimes that light is barely a flickering flame. Sometimes we can't even see a trace of that light, but only the shadows it casts. But God's promise in Jesus Christ is that the day is surely coming when you will arise to the full brightness of Christ's glorious presence. The day is surely coming when the darkness will be no more.

On this Day of Epiphany, we celebrate the revelation of Christ's presence in the world. We mark that moment when darkness was first sent on the run, when the light appeared on the scene in a new way, a way that could not be denied, could not be snuffed out.

Isaiah's call to his people rings through to us even down to this day. Arise, the light has come. It may not be obvious to you every moment of every day, but the glory of the Lord has risen upon you and will raise you to himself. That is the promise that banishes the darkness in our lives and in this world once and for all.
